SUPERIOR COURT JUDGE - - - - 4 year term

ARTICLE IV, 5 SUPERIOR COURT -- ELECTION OF JUDGES, TERMS OF, ETC.

The first superior judges elected under this Constitution shall hold their offices for the period of three years, and until their successors shall be elected and qualified, and thereafter the term of office of all superior judges in this state shall be for four years from the second Monday in January next succeeding their election and until their successors are elected and qualified.

In superior court contests, a primary is held only if two or more candidates file for the position. When only one candidate files for a superior court position in a county with a population of 100,000 or more, no primary or election is held for the position and a certification of election is issued. If two or more candidates file for a superior court position, a primary is held. If a candidate in a contested primary for superior court receives a majority of all the votes cast, they are considered elected and no general election is held for the position. If, after a contested primary, no candidate has received a majority, the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes proceed to the general election. All judicial candidates' names are rotated in primaries.

(Reference: Article 4, Section 29, Amendment 41, RCW 29A.36.171, RCW 29A.52.231.

NUMBER OF CANDIDATES	SUPERIOR COURT		DISTRICT & MUNICIPAL
	Primary	General	Primary	General
1	NO	NO	NO	YES
	(Population 100,000 or more)
2	YES	NO	NO	YES
	(Population under 100,000)
3 or more	YES	NO	YES	YES, top vote getter if majority, top two vote getters if no majority

** Unless there is no majority or a petition is filed indicating a write-in candidate. (pursuant to Article IV Sec. 29)

A "majority", for the puposes stated above, means 50% plus one vote of all votes cast for that office.

PRECINCT COMMITTEE OFFICER- - - - - 2 year term

* PCO's that were appointed after the 2006 General Election.

THE OFFICE OF PRECINCT COMMITTEE OFFICER

In addition to the various state and county offices which will appear upon the general election ballot, most voters will have the opportunity to vote for the office of "precinct committee officer".

WHO IS ELIGIBLE

State law (RCW 29A.80.041) provides that any person who is a registered voter and a member of a major political party may become a candidate for the office of precinct committee officer by filing a declaration of candidacy and paying a $1 filing fee to the county auditor. Since voters do not register by political party in Washington, a candidate declares himself or herself to be a Democrat or a Republican at the time he or she files for the office. The filing period for the office of precinct committee officer begins at the same time as the filing period for other partisan officers (the fourth Monday in July in even-numbered years), and lasts for three weeks, ending on the third Friday following that date.

ELECTION OF PRECINCT COMMITTEE OFFICER

Candidates for precinct committee officer will appear on the primary ballot and the candidate receiving the most votes in his or her precinct for each political party is declared elected. State law (RCW 29A.80.051) does provide, however, that to be declared elected, a candidate must receive at least 10% of the number of votes cast for the candidate of his or her party receiving the greatest number of votes in that precinct.

TERM OF OFFICE AND VACANCIES

The term of office for anyone elected to the office of precinct committee officer is two years, commencing the first day of December following the Primary election. Should a vacancy occur in the office (caused by death, disqualification, resignation, or failure to elect), the usual process is for the chairman of the party central committee to fill the vacancy by appointment. Appoints to fill vacancies cannot be made between the state general election and the organization meeting of the county central committee, which must be held prior to the second Saturday in January following the election of precinct committee officer.

DUTIES OF PRECINCT COMMITTEE OFFICER AS MEMBERS OF THE COUNTY AND STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEES

1. Each precinct committee officer is a member of the county central committee. The county central committee has the authority to fill vacancies on the party ticket for partisan county offices and for legislative offices in districts entirely within that county when no candidate files for such a position or when a candidate of nominee dies or is disqualified leaving no candidate of the party for such an office; they may also nominate persons for appointment to these offices if an incumbent of the party resigns; and finally, elect members to the state central committee.

2. The state central committee has the authority under state law (RCW 29A.80.020) to:

- Call caucuses and conventions.
- Provide for the election of delegates to national nominating conventions.
- Fill vacancies on the party ticket for any federal, state or legislative office which encompasses more than one county.
- Nominate persons to fill vacancies caused by resignation or death of an incumbent of the party in state offices and legislative offices in districts which encompasses more than one county.
- Provide for the nomination of presidential electors.
- Perform other functions inherent in such an organization.

NON-STATUTORY DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF PRECINCT COMMITTEE OFFICER

Specific duties and responsibilities of a precinct committee officer are usually determine by either the county or state central committees. The following duties are commonly assigned to precinct committee officers by their party organization:

- Keep information on current issues and candidates, study the party platform.
- Attend meetings of county committees and actively participate in fund-raising activities.
- Obtain lists of registered voters from the County Auditor's office.
- Canvass the precinct and become acquainted with the voters residing therein.
- Establish a record of eligible voters and party members within the precinct.
- Encourage voter registration within the precinct.
- Distribute party election materials during election campaigns.
- Recommend party members to work as precinct election officers.
- Encourage voters to get out and vote on election day.
- Encourage the use of absentee ballots.
- Hold precinct caucuses at certain selected times for the purpose of adopting resolutions and selecting delegates to the county conventions.
